

10

KIBABII UNIVERSITY

MAIN CAMPUS

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS

2015/2016 ACADEMIC YEAR

FOURTH YEAR SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

FOR THE DEGREE

OF

BACHELOR OF SOCIAL WORK

COURSE CODE: SSW 413

COURSE TITLE: SOCIAL POLICY ADMINISTRATION

DATE: 06/05/2016

TIME: 2PM

---

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

ANSWER QUESTION ONE AND ANY OTHER TWO QUESTIONS

TIME: 3Hours

Kibu observes ZERO tolerance to examination cheating

1. (a) Define the following terms (3mks)
  - i) Social policies
  - ii) Social policy administration
  - iii) Public sector(b) i) Outline the millennium development goals and their implementation creed as outlined by the united nations. (14mks)
ii) As a social policy maker identify four short comings in the millennium development goals and discuss on how they have been addressed in the sustainable development goals? (4mks)
(c) Discuss five levels at which services are supposed to be provided by the government in a stratified manner through the public sector. (10mks)
2. Discuss two advantages and two disadvantages of using the following agencies to implement social policies. (20mks).
  - i) The private sector
  - ii) Non- governmental organizations
  - iii) The public sector
  - iv) Semi-autonomous government agencies (SAGA's)
3. Compare and contrast the universal and selective approaches of administering social policies in Kenya? (20mks)
4. (a) Discuss with relevant examples, five advantages of having citizens participate in the monitoring process when implementing any social policy? (10mks)
(b) Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of the following methods of evaluating a policy implementation process.
  - i) Goal based evaluation.
  - ii) Goal free evaluation.
5. (a) i) With relevant examples explain four ways through which social programs in a community can be financed? (8mks).
ii) Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of each of the methods mentioned in (i) above. (4mks)
(b) Financing of social policies in developing countries has been viewed by the developed world as a waste of resources that would have been used to finance other potential investments. As a social policy advocate explain any four justification that can be used towards financing social policy programs in Kenya? (8mks).