QUESTION ONE - COMPULSORY (30 MARKS)

Read the following imaginative excerpts and account for the authors' arrangement and use of language?

Sambia shall be Free (Kauda 1962)

My father died when I was eight years old and I cried bitterly when I heard of his death, for I loved him and all my memories of him are sweet ones.

(b) Songs of the Season (Oriola 2002)

A parrot flew in and perched on a dry branch of a tree nearby. The branch of the tree broke and he lost his grip. He flew again and reperched on another. He asked questions on behalf of the gathering of the birds' race.

(c) The Old Man and the Sea (Hemingway 1952)

He was an Old Man who fished alone in skiff in the Gulf Stream and he had gone eighty-four days now without taking a fish.

(d) Native Voices - A Collection of Essays (Brodkin and Pearson 1971)

You have to smile twenty-four hours a day, Momma would say. If you walk through life showing aggravation you've gone through, people will feel sorry for you, and they'll never respect you. She taught us that man has two ways out in life-laughing or crying. There's more hope in laughing.

(e) Houseboy (Oyono 1960)

Father Gilbert says I can read and write fluently. Now I can keep a diary like he does. Keeping a diary is a white man's custom and what pleasure there is in it I do not know.

(f) Weep Not, Child (Wa Thiong'o 1964)

Nyokabi called him. She was a small, black woman, with a bold but grave face. One could tell by her small eyes full of life and warmth that she had once been beautiful. But time and bad conditions do not favour beauty.
