

KIBABII UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION
ACADEMIC YEAR 2019/2020

FIRST YEAR FIRST SEMESTER MAIN EXAMINATION

MASTERS OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATIONAL PLANNING AND MANAGEMENT

COURSE CODE: EPM 816.

COURSE TITLE: PROBLEMS OF EDUCATIONAL PLANNING IN DEVELOPING IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

DATE: 23/2/21

TIME 2.00PM-5.00 PM

DURATION: 3HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

KIBU observes ZERO tolerance to examination cheating

1a). Discuss the challenges of teacher demands and supply to educational planners in Kenya (10 Marks).

b). Examine how rapid population growth affects the demand for education in developing countries (6marks)

c) Illustrate the challenges facing governments in providing adequate educational needs for its citizens in developing countries (8 marks)

d) Explain the causes for scarcity of statistical data in educational planning in developing countries (6 Marks)

e). Discuss using appropriate examples why the current challenges facing educational planning in developing countries has remain persistent for years after independence (10 Marks)

b) Discuss the solutions to the problems facing educational planning in developing countries (10 Marks)

3. Discuss manpower imbalance and its effects on educational planning (15 Marks)

4. Unemployment is said to be a product of rapid population growth. Explain the factors that have led to the failure by governments to manage rapid population growth in developing countries (15 marks)

5. Scarcity of educational resources is a common phenomenon in developing countries. Suggest possible ways how this problem can be addressed (15 marks).